

For clean fast and safe removal of oil, water and chemical spills!

More and more industries are using meltblown polypropylene sorbents (MBPP) instead of traditional granulates for the containment and clean-up of all types of spills (such as water, chemicals, petroleum-based fluids, etc.) in the workplace.

Our innovative Fisherbrand MBPP polypropylene sorbent pads, rolls and pillows for spill control have many advantages over these conventional granulates:

Granulates

SLOW & LOW ABSORPTION
takes hours and only absorbs 1-2 times its own weight

MESSY & POTENTIAL HEALTH HAZARD
spreads quickly and contaminates machinery and adjacent areas; silica-based granules are also dangerous when inhaled

HIGH DISPOSAL & LABOUR COSTS
requires a lot of granules and takes much more time to clean them up

MBPP Sorbents

QUICK & HIGH VOLUME ABSORPTION
within a few seconds absorbs 10-25 times its own weight

SIMPLE & SAFE
use like a giant paper tissue, wide chemical resistance with no risk of dust particle inhalation

LOW DISPOSAL COST & EASY TO USE
use less material, clean up quickly and stay environmentally friendly

Use Fisherbrand MBPP sorbents and save up to 36% of your cleaning costs compared to using traditional granulates!

Fisherbrand MPPP sorbents are available in a range of different formats for numerous applications. Our product range is growing all the time reflecting customer requirements and various spill situations, offering real solutions to everyday industrial environments.
